

2012 Fishing and Club Awards List

The following is a list of the members recognized for contributions of time and efforts in support of the club in 2012. Presented at the Annual Awards Banquet and Conservation Fundraiser

Fishing Awards:

Ring of the Rise Award: Largest fish on a wet fly.

Recipient: Steve Duckett

35 Pound Giant Trevally Christmas Island

Angler of the Year: Determined by Big Fish Card point system.

Recipient: Jim Isaacson

11 points 3 Fish

Club Awards:

Fly Tyer Contribution Award – Determined at Dinner from selection of member donated flies.

Recipient: Bob Davis

The Jim Thatcher Award: for member who gives significantly of his/her time and effort, without regard to their own interest, for the specific betterment of the Club and its activities.

Justifications: “Lee has volunteered his time as a Board Member and has served as Fishmaster for numerous Fishouts.”

Presented to: Lee Dorius

The Harry D’Angelo Award: for a member who gives significantly of his/her time and effort over a long period of time.

Justifications: “Shiz and Judy have volunteered many, many times over the years to help out with a wide variety of club functions, including the Ed Foundation, Fist First for disabled Vets and managing the video checkouts.”

Presented to: Judy & Shiz Nakawatse

The Ken Eugene Award: for a member who has performed a singular (or many) service(s) for the betterment of the club.

Justifications: “Dave has continued to spend his time and efforts helping raise funds through the monthly raffle, and has also volunteered to serve as a Board Member.”

Presented to: Dave Pellone

The Wading Staff Award: for the member who has given exceptional service to the programs of the Education Foundation during the current year.

Presented to: Dave Turner

Distinguished Service Award: for the member or members who have performed a service of special significance to the Club.

Justifications: “Diana has just completed a three year tour of duty serving on the Board and has been active as the Club Historian producing the End of the Year slideshow.”

Presented to: Diana Ross

The Houwink-Seldon Conservation Award: for the member who has contributed the most to conservation activities for the club, for the benefit of all fisherman, environmental improvements, local state or federal conservation activities or work in the NCCFFF.

Presented to: Ken Imatani

The President’s Award: selected by the President for outstanding support during a year.

Justifications: “Wade has contributed his time and efforts helping out in the Club as the Newsletter Editor, served as a long time Board Member, Club Treasurer, Seminar Chair, and a Fishmaster.”

Presented to: Wade Goertz

The Broken Paddle Award: for the member who has been involved in any humorous situation while on Club fishout. (A ‘goof-up’)

Story of incident: “The story spread quickly through the fishing world, has been retold at campfires and gatherings and has come back to us as both legend and lore. Evidently, while fishing during the Pyramid Lake Fishout, Trent Jorgenson had some “balance issues”, not unlike that of a drunken man trying to stay upright, and is now known by the Pyramid locals as the “teter totter ladder man”.

Presented to: Trent Jorgenson

Member of the Year: for outstanding service to the club.

Reasons: “Bob has served on the Board, runs the Merchandise effort, and served as Fishmaster multiple times over many years.”

Presented to: Bob Bergthold